Dear Parents/ Guardians,

S.1 Interdisciplinary Learning Activity (Class 1A)

The school is dedicated to promoting civic literacy and drawing students' attention to the development of "Green City". To broaden students' horizons and enable students to learn about different perspectives of sustainable urban development, the school will organize the S.1 Interdisciplinary Learning Activity. Through visiting the Mil Mill which is the first pulp mill and education center that recycle beverage cartons in Hong Kong, the organic farm and cultural heritage in the New Territories, students could appreciate the importance of ecological balance and cultural conservation and reflect on their roles in safeguarding national ecological and cultural security and sustainable development of the society. The details of the activity are as follows:
